From: Commanding General
To: Distribution List

Subj: PARRIS ISLAND JOGGING PROGRAM

1. Situation. To update the established Parris Island Jogging Program.

2. Cancellation. DepO 1710.27D

3. Mission. The Parris Island Jogging Program has been established as an adjunct of the Depot Recreation program. Jogging is an inexpensive activity, which may be pursued on an individual basis at the participant's leisure on a year round basis.

4. Execution

a. Commander's Intent. To provide Marines with an incentive program to participate in the program and maintain mental and physical well-being.

b. Concept of Operations. In order to enhance participation in the program, appropriately lettered jackets will be awarded to participants who achieve 1,000 miles during a calendar year (1 January - 31 December). Documentation of mileage will be effective as of 1 January each year and will be verified by Marine Corps Community Services (MCCS), South Carolina, Fitness Center staff. The mileage forms are available at the Fitness Center, Parris Island, South Carolina.

c. All Active Duty patrons are eligible to participate in this program.

5. Administration and Logistics. The MCCS Athletic Director will complete the responsibilities listed below.

a. Establish a record keeping procedure for individuals participating in the Parris Island Jogging Program.

3 JUL 2014

b. Upon milestone completion, a request will be submitted by the Fitness Center Manager to the MCCA Athletic Director for individuals who have met the milestone.

c. Issue 1,000 mile jackets to the Fitness Center for distribution to the individuals achieving the milestone.

6. Command and Signal

a. Command. All Commanding Officers ensure the widest possible dissemination of this order.

b. Signal. This order is effective the date signed.
